Washington. 30th July 1838

Dear Sir,

In reply to yours of the 24th. inst. I would state, that I do not remember whether Nigger Keenle applied to the Pst. for a re appointment - tho it is probable he did -

The rule, however, is at the end of four years to consider the office vacant and to be reappointed in filling it with either a new <sup>man</sup> or the old incumbent as the public interests may appear to require. Rotation is generally introduced after eight years -

I am not aware, that the late Receiver is likely to be in default - though some difficulty arose once or twice by the suspension of specie payments while his deposits were in one of the suspended banks -

The political horizon is clearing up in most quarters - We have a hard fight ahead with the married slaves and the aristocracy of the professions - but victory will again perch on our banner, if we are united, vigilant and active -

Respectfully Yours
